South Dakota Salutes our First Responders

Harrisburg, SD – Hundreds of South Dakotans are coming together to show appreciation for the brave women and men who put their lives on the line every day to keep us safe, and protect our freedoms.

South Dakota Salutes will host events to say thank you to first responders of all kinds, as well as raise money to support the families of those heroes who give their lives in the line of duty.

"Thousands of our family members, friends and neighbors selflessly put themselves in harm's way every day to keep us safe. We want to make sure they know how much we appreciate their service," said Tony Bour, organization founder. "South Dakota Salutes will give us the honor of saying thank you to these heroes in a tangible way, while ensuring the sons and daughters of those who have fallen are supported through an extremely difficult time."

The second annual South Dakota Salutes appreciation shooting competition will be held at Hunters Pointe Shooting Complex near Humboldt, SD on Monday & Tuesday, September 25 & 26, 2017 beginning at 9am each day.

"We've invited first responders, including law enforcement, fire and rescue personnel, EMTs, and paramedics, as well as all active and retired military," said Bour. "These heroes will participate in a host of marksmanship competitions, free of charge, thanks to grateful donors. Proceeds raised in excess of event expenses will go to the families left behind by folks who make the ultimate sacrifice to protect us."

There is still room for first responders, military and military veterans to attend and participate in sporting clays, rifle, and pistol marksmanship competitions. Interested first responders and military are invited to register at www.SDsalutes.org; walk-ons will also be welcome the day of events.
